

Stephanie Adair

ASSISTANT TO GAIL DAVIS

Stephanie Adair is Gail Davis' executive assistant and bureau liaison, working with other bureaus across the country on co-brokering speakers. She is also known as the "celebrator-in-chief" by staying ahead of the team's goals and tracking recent wins.

Stephanie supports Gail in all sales activities including proposals and securing engagements. She not only assists with customer and speaker firm offer negotiations, as a GDA alum, she works closely with Gail on intense speaker searches and helps bring solutions to the table. She spent two years as one of GDA's lead sales associates, booking and supporting events for celebrity speakers and Fortune 100 companies.

Stephanie knows well how to support a business leader. Prior to returning to GDA, she was an administrative staffing recruiter Delta Dallas. During her time there, she was named Rookie of the Year for the State of Texas, Rookie of the Year for the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex and honored with the President's Award.

Stephanie is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma, having grown up an Oklahoma Sooner in Oklahoma City. She and her husband, Todd Adair, live in the heart of Dallas and just welcomed their first child. If you ever visit her desk at the GDA office, Stephanie's organization addiction is evident, which will most likely be cured with the arrival of her daughter!
